

Franziska Brantner

Franziska Brantner is currently associated with the Planning Committee of the German Foreign Ministry before starting her PhD with Professor Wessels. She recently graduated from the dual degree program of Sciences Po (Paris, France) and Columbia University's School of Public and International Affairs (SIPA). From Sciences Po, she graduated as First of the 2004 class. She has substantial academic and professional experience related to the process of European integration and transatlantic relations. She has initiated the "European Students'Convention" to scrutinize the European Union's efforts to develop a European Constitution as well as founded the Transatlantic Student Group at Columbia University. Prior to graduate school, she participated in a training program for young leaders, sponsored by the (German) Heinrich Böll Foundation. Franziska has also consulted to the United Nations Development Fund for Women (UNIFEM) and advised the delegation of the European Commission to the UN in New York. She is member of the McKinsey College and a fellow of the German National Academic Foundation (Studienstiftung des Deutschen Volkes). Franziska has lived and worked in Tel Aviv, Washington, D.C., Paris, New York and Berlin.

